You can also visit the museum displaying the Imperial Collections.

This afternoon, after enjoying lunch together in a local restaurant, we will head to the Asakusa Kannon Temple. One of Tokyo's most famous temple sites, the Asakusa Kannon Temple is dedicated to the Bodhisattva, Guan Yin - the Chinese deity of mercy and benevolence whose origins lie in Hindu beliefs from India. Alleys of shops selling all manner of souvenirs and crafts surround the temple – it is known as the Nakamise Shopping Street. The temple and its market shops are popular with the locals and visitors alike.

After our day of sightseeing, we'll check into our hotel in Tokyo, our base for the next 2 nights.

Sushi is the most famous Japanese dish outside of Japan and one of the most popular dishes among the Japanese themselves, who usually enjoy sushi on special occasions. We will enjoy your own culinary creations for lunch.

This afternoon, we visit Meiji Shrine – a Shinto Shrine dedicated to the divine souls of Emperor Meiji and his consort, Empress Shoken. Today's sightseeing ends in Tokyo's most fashionable shopping district - Harajuku. Omotesando Street at the heart of the district is sometimes referred to as "Tokyo's Champs-Élysées". the remote mountains spanning from Gifu to Toyama Prefectures, the area was Declared a UNESCO world heritage site in 1995. The region is famous for its traditional farmhouses, some of which are more than 250 years old.

Gokayama is less developed and less crowded than Shirakawa, its villages are smaller, more intimate and with less intrusion from modern buildings. The Gokayama region has been well known for its washi paper since Taira Clan refugees brought the art here from Kyoto. At the factory you can watch how washi paper is made and try your hand at making some yourself.

We'll have lunch at a local restaurant together and then go to Kanazawa to check into our hotel.

Included meals: Breakfast and Lunch

DAY 6 - SAMURAI IN KANAZAWA & THE BULLET TRAIN TO KYOTO

One of the main attractions of the district is the centrally located Nomura-ke. A restored samurai residence, it displays the lifestyle and artifacts of the era when samurai were prosperous. Beside Kanazawa Castle in the heights of the central part of Kanazawa lies Kenrokuen Garden. A beautiful Japanese garden spanning some 11.4 hectares, from its scale and beauty, it is regarded as one of the most beautiful feudal lords' gardens in Japan.

Within Kenrokuen Garden is the Seisonkaku, a villa built 1863 by the 13th lord of the Maeda family for his mother. A wide variety of fine Japanese artistic techniques are used for the inner pillars and walls.

After sightseeing, we will transfer to the Kanazawa Station to buy a bento (Japanese boxed lunch) to enjoy during our next journey. Here, we will board one of Japan's most iconic sights - the bullet train, which will whisk us across Japan to Kyoto at super speeds. Once arrived in Kyoto, we will proceed to the hotel located next to Kyoto Station on foot. After check-in, the evening is at leisure.

DAY 7 - DISCOVERING KYOTO

This morning, we will visit the Golden Pavilion or Kinkakuji Temple. One of the landmarks of Kyoto, it is an epitome of Kitayama culture. We will continue on to Nijo Castle, built by Tokugawa Ieyasu in 1603 as his personal residence in Kyoto.

After lunch in a local restaurant together, we'll proceed to Kiyomizu Temple. According to legend, the Priest Enchin built his hermitage and a small chapel here in 788 A.D. With support from General Sakanoueno Tamuramaro, the temple was erected in 798. Many of the present buildings were reconstructed between 1631 and 1633 by order of Shogun Iemitsu Tokugawa. From the platform in the main hall you can enjoy a panoramic view of Kyoto surrounded by cherry blossoms in the spring, green foliage in the summer, and crimson maples in autumn.

Later, we will enjoy a walking tour of Kyoto's Gion district. Heading through the old back streets lined with wooden houses, we will wander down the alleyways of Kyoto's world-renowned geisha districts as the geiko or maiko make their way to and from their lessons. You will receive an insider's view into the past, present and future of this unique and exotic world.

Included meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Accommodation: Kyoto

DAY 8 - KYOTO TO NARA & HIROSHIMA

Following breakfast, we will travel to the city of Nara. Here we will visit the Todai-ji Temple. First built in 752 AD, it houses the world's largest bronze casting, the giant Daibutsu statue. Commissioned by the Shommu in 743 AD, the Buddha image required 437 tons of bronze and 130 kilograms of pure gold! The wooden structure which houses the Buddha image is believed to be the largest wooden structure on earth and has undergone several reconstructions due to the frequent fires which have ravaged it.

Afterwards, enjoy a stroll through Nara Park, a vast nature park famous for its many deer, which graze in the grassy serenity of the park. Spectacular cherry blossoms, Japanese Andromeda and many other flowers bloom here. We will also visit the Kasuga Shrine, which was built in 768 AD and reconstructed every 20 years thereafter, as was the custom in ancient times. The temple is complemented by 3,000 lanterns, of which over 1,600 are made from stone and the remainder bronze. The lanterns are lit twice a year on the eve of the Mandoro Festival.

Today, we will head out to Hiroshima's Peace Memorial Park, one of the most prominent features of the city, covering some 120,000 square metres. Its trees, lawns and walking paths are in stark contrast to the surrounding downtown area. Central to the park is the Peace Memorial Museum, displaying a history of Hiroshima and the advent of the nuclear bomb. The Hiroshima Orizuru Tower is located beside the A-Bomb Dome in Hiroshima. The 50m tall tower is one of the few tall buildings around the Peace Memorial Park and offers a great view of the surroundings, including the less commonly seen view of the A-Bomb Dome from above.

This afternoon, after lunch in a local restaurant together, we will transfer to Miyajima-Guchi. Here we will board a local ferry to Miyajima, to enjoy a walking tour of the Itsukushima Shrine. An information desk on the first floor provides details about climbing and weather conditions, as well as about tourist attractions around the mountain. On the second floor there is a restaurant and an observation deck with views onto Mount Fuji.

Lake Ashi is one of the principle attractions of the Hakone area. Created by volcanic activity, it lies at approximately 2,380 feet above sea level. We will board a leisurely boat cruise on the picturesque lake, framed by the majestic mountain landscape. For those who are not afraid of heights, we will also visit Mt. Komagatake – a 1,637 meter volcano mountain rising above Lake Tazawa's eastern edge. Hop on the aerial cableway for a journey up and down Mt. Komagatake, providing you with a sweeping view of celebrated Hakone National Park and Mt. Fuji.
